North Valley Career & Technology Center is looking for a talented and motivated, full time Agriculture Instructor to be part of a three-person regional agriculture program for the 2020-21 school year. The schedule will be built to fill six instructional periods and have one prep period. The instructional periods are flexible and can be in any agricultural area the teacher is highly qualified to teach in ND. We will consider a 215-day contract. This position is adding an instructor to aid in the rapidly increasing enrollment and desire of students to take Ag classes. The department consists of a state-of-the-art greenhouse, classroom and office. Position also requires being an advisor for the FFA program.

NVCTC is a regional center, which service the districts of Drayton, Grafton, Midway, Minto, Park River, St. Thomas, and Valley-Edinburg. The Center is located in Grafton, North Dakota, a community with a population of around 4200 in northeast ND.

To be considered for this position, an applicant's file must be completed and received by April 10, 2020, and should contain:

1. A formal letter of application
2. Resume
3. Certification of teaching
4. Transcripts from institutions where bachelors, masters, or doctorate degree was earned; do not include transcripts for other coursework
5. Two Letters of Recommendation
