

NORTH DAKOTA FFA ASSOCIATION

DISTRICT LEADERSHIP GENERAL RULES MANUAL

District Leadership

1. All chapters must meet the eligibility requirements as outlined in the General Section of the Career Development Events Guide.
2. Member Eligibility - in addition to those stipulations listed in the general guidelines section of the Career Development Events Guide, all members must be in official dress as outlined in the North Dakota FFA Association Code of Ethics. Members competing in entertainment, or demonstration events may be exempt for the duration of their event.
3. All judges shall be selected by the districts and shall meet with the district advisors and state staff prior to all events for instructions and review of the procedures to be followed.
4. Chapter of the Day Award - Chapters will be rated on the quantity and quality of their representation at the District FFA Leadership Meeting. The following point system will be used to determine individual chapter ratings:

Activity	Base Points	Gold	Silver	Bronze	Bonus Points
Prepared Public Speaking	2	6	4	2	1 st Place – 1
Extemporaneous Public Speaking	2	6	4	2	1 st Place – 1
Creed Speaking	2	6	4	2	1 st Place – 1
Parliamentary Procedure Team	6	18	12	6	1 st Place – 1
Employment Skills	2	6	4	2	1 st Place - 1
Quiz Team	2	6	4	2	1 st Place - 1
Greenhand Quiz Team	1	3	2	1	1 st Place - 1
Demonstration	2	6	4	2	1 st Place -1
Conduct of Chapter Meetings Team	3	9	6	3	1 st Place -1
Talent	Participation

The chapter with the highest total will be named as the Outstanding Chapter and will receive the Rural Electric Cooperative (REC) rotating plaque for one year.

5. All Districts shall follow the District Leadership Handbook.
6. In the event of a tie for Chapter of the Day, scores of the following contests, in the order listed, shall be used to break the tie:

- a. Parliamentary Procedure
- b. Total Officer Ratings
- c. Public Speaking (Extemp.)
- d. Public Speaking (Prepared)
- e. Creed Speaking
- f. Demonstration
- g. Quiz

7. State officers shall be kept free of judging responsibilities at the district leadership conferences.